WELCOME TO NAXOS – The World's Leading Classical Music Group

FOREWORD BY KLAUS HEYMANN, Founder and Chairman of NAXOS

Naxos Music Group – A World of Classical Music

Naxos was founded in 1987 and has developed from being known primarily as a budget label focusing on standard repertoire into a virtual encyclopaedia of classical music with a catalogue of unparalleled depth and breadth. Innovative strategies for recording exciting new repertoire with exceptional talent have enabled the Naxos label to develop one of the largest and fastest-growing catalogues of unduplicated repertoire. Over 10,000 titles are currently available at affordable prices, recorded in state-of-the-art sound, both in hard format and on digital platforms. Naxos works with artists of the highest calibre and its recordings have been recognised with numerous international honours, including GRAMMY, ICMA, Opus Klassik and Gramophone Editor's Choice Awards.

The company has also transformed into a global music group that owns, administers and/or distributes a large number of other independent record labels. Some of these labels are listed in this catalogue.

The Naxos name is synonymous not only with music recordings, but also with other products and services, from audio-visual products to books, e-books, audio books, apps and musical scores, as well as a wide range of online resources and services, for both general and professional consumption.

With its suite of subscription streaming platforms, Naxos continues as a leader and innovator, particularly in the area of education. Launched in 2002, NaxosMusicLibrary.com is used by thousands of educational institutions and libraries around the world. With over 155,000 albums from hundreds of labels and more than 1,100 albums being added every month, it has become the listening source of choice for generations of students and professional musicians as they explore classical music. Together with the Naxos Video, Jazz, World Music and Spoken Word libraries, our online resources have had a great impact in developing future audiences for these genres.

The Naxos label's 2021 musical milestones

The Naxos label is famous for its many projects to record either a composer's complete oeuvre, or complete cycles of works from within that output. Cycles completed in 2021 include Boris Giltburg's landmark recordings of Beethoven's 32 Piano Sonatas; the operettas of Johann Strauss II; the Best Loved Opera Aria series; an overview of the History of the Russian Piano Trio; and Naxos World's 20-volume edition of the Folk Music of China. Moreover, a number of previously completed editions were newly presented in box sets, including Prokofiev's Complete Symphonies; The English Song collection; Leroy Anderson's Complete Orchestral Works; Rossini's Complete Works for Piano; Malcolm Arnold's Complete Symphonies and Dances; and Saint-Saëns' Complete Symphonies.

We began a number of new cycles in 2021, including Brahms' songs, Mozart's Masses, Wranitzky's orchestral works, and our British Light Music series in a reissue of the Marco Polo edition on Naxos.

Ongoing projects include our recording of all Auber's overtures; the Liszt complete piano music edition (now at Vol. 59); Keith Brion's edition of Sousa's works for wind band, with 21 of the 23 volumes already released; Schumann's arrangements of symphonic works and chamber music for piano duet (now at its penultimate album); the Music of Brazil series; and the complete edition of Bartók's piano music.

We continued to add some truly outstanding releases throughout the year, with several of them notably attracting international awards. The recording of Christopher Rouse's Fifth Symphony by the Nashville Symphony Orchestra under Giancarlo Guerrero won the GRAMMY award for Best Contemporary Classical Composition, and the GRAMMY Award for Best Choral Performance went to JoAnn Falletta's recording of Richard Danielpour's The Passion of Jesus. Two audiovisual releases were also recognised: the International Opera Award for Recording of the Year (Complete Opera) went to the Paris Opéra Comique production of Ambroise Thomas' Hamlet, and the Berlin Komisch Oper's production of Weinberger's Frühlingstürme received the Opus Klassik Award for Best Opera Recording (20th-21st Century).

Our leading Naxos artists again featured on a number of acclaimed new recordings. Highlights included Boris Giltburg's edition of Beethoven's 32 Piano Sonatas ("... enormously pleasurable and at times revelatory," BBC Music Magazine); Tianwa Yang's performance of Prokofiev's Violin Concertos ("... a special treat." Pizzicato); Jun Märkl's album of Saint-Saëns' music for wind ensemble ("... spectacular performances." Classical Music Daily); Marin Alsop's recording of Hindemith's Sancta Susanna and Mathis der Maler Symphony ("... an exemplary Hindemith album ... a great success." Crescendo); and Gabriel Schwabe's performance of cello concertos by Elgar and Bridge ("The performance by Gabriel Schwabe and the ORF Vienna Radio Symphony Orchestra under Christopher Ward is hugely impressive, full of finely realised detail, and lacking in bombast." The Guardian).

Opera lovers were treated to a wide range of audio recordings, from César Franck's Hulda ("Naxos and Fabrice Bollon deserve a huge round of applause for making it available in such a persuasive performance." ClassicsToday.com) to Daron Hagen's Orson Rehearsed ("... a compelling and moving experience." Fanfare), while our expanding catalogue of audio/visual recordings added Chaya Czernowin's Heart Chamber ("... as ravishing to listen to as it is to behold." Opera), Cavalli's Ercole amante ("... a simply unforgettable show." Scherzo), and Prokofiev's The Fiery Angel ("Naxos deserve a gold star for preserving such a memorable night at the opera." Limelight).

Our incomparable American Classics series grew to a total of 545 albums with the addition of 10 new entries. Notable among them were a programme of songs, choral and piano works by Arthur Farwell, possibly the most neglected composer in American musical history ("... the issuing of Farwell's music on this new Naxos CD could not be timelier." MusicWeb International); an album featuring Florence Beatrice Price's Symphony No. 3 and other orchestral works ("... excellent interpretations." Pizzicato); and a number of Joan Tower's concertante and solo works featuring percussionist Dame Evelyn Glennie and pianist Blair McMillen ("... all the performances are dazzling." Gramophone).

In total, the Naxos label added 187 new audio and audio-visual releases to the catalogue, 90 of which featured world premiere recordings. The latter included a number of stage works: Mayr's opera Elena under musical director Franz Hauk ("... another feather in [Hauk's] well-supplied cap." MusicWeb international); Abrahám's operetta Ball at the Savoy ("Beautifully recorded and presented, this is a Ball you cannot afford to miss." Classical Music Daily); Johann Strauss II's operetta Waldmeister ("... a wholly enjoyable listen ... a compelling argument for a long neglected work, aching to get back to our opera houses!" The Light Music Society); and Franck's opera Hulda (using the complete original score). Albums featuring premieres of instrumental works included Vol. 5 in the History of the Russian Piano Trio series that presented first recordings of three 20th-century works ("... this [series] is a set to treasure." Gramophone).

New recordings from our Affiliated labels

Our affiliated labels released 239 new recordings, many of which were recognised with prestigious awards. Opus Arte won the BBC Music Magazine Award for Best DVD with its recording of Wagner's Die Walküre ("A gripping Walküre, highly recommended." The Whole Note); Lars Vogt's Janáček album won the Opus Klassik Award for Instrumental Solo (piano) ("This album may come to be viewed as a classic Janáček recital." AllMusic.com); Selina Ott's debut recording for the Orfeo label won the Opus Klassik Award for Best Concert Recording (trumpet) ("This is a terrific debut recording." Fanfare); and Andreas Ihlebæk, pianist and recording artist for NXN Recordings, achieved 10 million streams across the major platforms.

The Naxos label and its growing roster of affiliated labels, offers something for everyone, newcomers and collectors alike. Whether you are an early music fan, guitar enthusiast, opera buff or connoisseur of historical performances, you will find a host of new discoveries that will both surprise and delight.

News from our digital services

Our educational platforms and streaming services – the Naxos Music Library, the Naxos Music Library Jazz, the Naxos Music Library World, the Naxos Video Library and the Naxos Spoken Word Library – all continue to develop and provide access to an incredible wealth of music, spoken word content, educational content and other musical composition information.

In 2021, over 150 labels joined our various libraries, enhancing the already rich content of these valuable resources. The breadth of recordings available is simply incomparable.

The Naxos Spoken Word Library continues to grow, with new features, publishers and other enhancements, both online and offline.

The Naxos Works Database also experienced significant growth, following continued collaboration with leading music publishers and music information centres, and now offers more than 147,000 works from nearly 6,500 composers.

Launched in 2020, Naxos MusicBox, our online music education resource for children between the ages of 4-14 years, continues to develop with the regular addition of new activities, while versions in German and Korean are in production.

For those who prefer to listen to and explore classical music through streaming, Naxos and its affiliated labels are present on all major platforms, such as Spotify, Apple Music, and YouTube Music, both on a number of playlists, and under their own curated profiles, including Naxos, Naxos Moods, unClassified, Grand Piano Records, and several others.

All this, together with the development of a range of books, apps and e-books, demonstrates the Naxos commitment to providing the best possible access to recorded classical music in the world. For more information on Naxos' products and services, please visit www.naxosmusicgroup.com.

BBC Music Magazine: Unlike Gramophone, the BBC Music Magazine is not primarily a publication devoted to recorded music but to music in general (as its title indicates). Nevertheless, the publication has been increasing its coverage of classical and other recordings and must now be considered a serious rival to Gramophone. The highest rating given to a recording is outstanding.

NAXOS WORLD

Building on its original catalogue from the 2000s, the Naxos World label was relaunched in 2019 with an expanded vision of becoming one of the industry's leading agents for world music alongside sister label ARC Music. Naxos World has a dual focus: first, to present recordings of folk music of different cultures; second, to explore performances that follow the more adventurous path of fusion in musical styles. Naxos also operates the only dedicated world music subscription streaming platform – Naxos Music Library World – which offers access to more than 12,000 albums.

CAPRICCIO

2022 marks the 40th anniversary of Capriccio, the distinguished classical music record label based in Vienna. Capriccio was founded by Delta Music in 1982. From the outset, the label's aim was not to compete with the major companies, their star artists and their vast archives. Rather, it aimed to fill the niches that other labels neglected, a philosophy that has remained constant. Capriccio is committed to music lovers who look beyond the classical mainstream and who are curious to discover unknown repertoire, young artists and inventive programmes.

DAPHNE RECORDS

Daphne started as an independent record company with a principle to present unusual and interesting musical repertoire with top quality Swedish musicians. The company was founded by Björn Uddén, former oboist for almost 40 years in the Swedish Radio Symphony Orchestra. Daphne spare no effort in producing sound, music and performances of the highest possible quality. Among the titles you can find composers like Dag Wirén, Wilhelm Stenhammar, Rolf Martinsson, Gösta Nyström, Laura Netzel and Valborg Aulin, and artists like Matti Hirvonen, Mats Widlund, Roland Pöntinen, Stenhammar Quartet and Mats Rondin. In October 2021 the label was acquired by Naxos, and is now a part of Naxos Music Group.

GRAND PIANO

Launched in March 2012 the critically-acclaimed Grand Piano label has gained a reputation for tapping undiscovered piano repertoire by lesser-known composers, whose works might otherwise have remained unknown and unrecorded. Its catalogue spans some four centuries of music and includes works by both past and living composers. The label specialises in multi-volume releases and complete cycles of piano works, the majority of its high quality recordings being world premières.

MARCO POLO

Launched in 1982, Marco Polo is the first label in the Naxos Music Group. The catalogue features works of both familiar and little known composers, light music, film music and world music – a veritable feast of new listening experience. With many rarities drawn from the period 1850–1940 as its hallmark, Marco Polo boasts a discovery from Cimarosa to Chen Gang, plus all stops in between.

NXN RECORDINGS

NXN Recordings is a new record label founded by Naxos Norway, run from Oslo, and distributed globally by the Naxos Music Group. The label believes that the shape of sound is unlimited and their goal is to release new Nordic music that will inspire and surprise audiences around the world.

When Norwegian music industry veteran Tomas Linnes took over as General Manager of Naxos Norway in September 2018, he soon saw an opportunity for creating a platform to release new and neo-Classical music from the vibrant music scene in Norway. He went about his mission and created the concept and the visual form of the label.

OEHMSCLASSICS

OehmsClassics, the independent German record label, was founded in 2003 by Dieter Oehms. His philosophy of helping young artists make their debut led to the label's first recordings. This soon extended to close artistic cooperation with a number of leading German and other European orchestras and opera houses that was to produce a catalogue of some 800 recordings covering the spectrum of classical music repertoire.

ORFEO

Orfeo was founded 1979 in Munich. After starting as a pure license label at RCA and EMI, Orfeo began releasing its own recordings in 1982. Thanks to the close cooperation with the best singers, instrumentalists, orchestras and conductors of the past three decades, Orfeo was able to realize many world premiere recordings and to build up an extraordinarily fine catalogue, which to date contains more than 1,000 recordings. The most famous series, Orfeo d'Or, features legendary historic performances at the festivals in Bayreuth and Salzburg or at the State Operas in Vienna and Munich.

SWEDISH SOCIETY

It was thanks to composer Hugo Alfvén that Sweden got its very first recording label devoted purely to classical music. The bond of friendship that existed between him and the recording enthusiast Hans Peter Kempe proved one of the most important in the history of Sweden's recording industry. The Midsummer Vigil LP, which was the label's very first release, raised Alfvén's profile to an international level.

Today, Swedish Society Discofil is still an important player in the recording of Swedish music and artists. Being considered an audiophile label, it shares its recording philosophy with sister-labels Proprius and Prophone.

SWR JAZZHAUS

SWR Jazzhaus is a German record label, founded in 2011 as a joint venture between South-Western Broadcasting (SWR) Media Services and Arthaus Musik. Its mission is the phased publication of SWR's archive material, assembled since the organisation's foundation in 1957. It represents one of the world's largest unpublished collections of live jazz, comprising over 3,000 hours of radio recordings and 500 hours of TV footage, performed by more than 400 ensembles and soloists. The expertly remastered original tapes are released on CD, DVD and vinyl, as well as on the more common digital platforms. To facilitate its mission, SWR Jazzhaus entered into collaboration with NAXOS Germany in 2015.

DIE THEATEREDITION

Die Theateredition was founded in 2006 by renowned producer François Duplat. As the first audiovisual label for theatre and drama within the German-speaking market, its aim is to reflect the diversity of the modern classical drama scene. Maria Walburga Stürzer has been head of Die Theateredition since 2011, during which time she has developed the catalogue through the addition of numerous high-class theatre productions.

Die Theateredition has gained a significant position in the German-speaking market following a series of notable audiovisual releases. These include Peter Stein's legendary staging of Goethe's Faust with Bruno Ganz in the title role (the label's best-selling title); Schiller's Kabale und Liebe; and the 10-DVD box set Klassiker des Theaters.

Die Theateredition joined the Naxos Music Group in 2018 with a mission to produce award-winning titles for an international market.

VOX

Founded in 1945 by George Mendelssohn (related to the composer Felix Mendelssohn), Vox's repertoire breadth is comprehensive, encompassing medieval music through 20th century contemporary composition, utilizing orchestral, vocal, choral & chamber ensembles.

The Vox record label name, as well as its various imprints, has stood for artistic quality along with good consumer value over the past 70 years. Allegretto is themed for a more contemporary generation than its sister labels' focus on repertoire and collectors; Comprised of single-artist compilations, Vox Legends celebrates the greatest performances and artists from the early years of the Vox catalogue; Vox Box consists of both new recordings as well as reissues from the back catalogue; Music Masters focuses on a particular composer with combining excerpts of works by the respective composer interspersed with narration written by the eminent musicologist/author Joseph Machlis. Other imprints include Turnabout, Candide, Vox Cameo Classics and MMG/Vox Cum Laude.

If you're aged between 4 and 14 and want to know more about classical music and instruments, then you should ask your parents, grandparents, godparents or teachers to sit down and discover what is on offer from MusicBox, the latest great product from Naxos. Explore MusicBox on your own or together with an adult.

'It's a terrific resource for kids – bravo!'
– Marin Alsop, conductor

'A perfect way to introduce kids to music.'
– Creative Child

Naxos MusicBox is a brand new, carefully produced and beautifully presented music resource for children, accessible through monthly or yearly subscriptions. Developed to enhance the music education of children aged 4–14, the colourful, clear design and specifically written texts will appeal to a young audience, whilst also provide parents plenty of materials and activities to try out with the children. Children can explore MusicBox, with its wealth of activities and resources, on their own, or together with their friends, parents or teachers.

Naxos MusicBox is available in two versions: One for individual subscribers in a home environment to explore on their own or with parents; and one more extensive site for teachers to use in the classroom, with a range of activities, lesson plans and other PDF resources. There are activities for younger children (4–6) based around songs, and for older children (6–14), based around the sections presented on the homepage.
